“Rest” explained

Verse	Phrase	About Canaan?	Notes
Heb 3:11	“They shall not enter into my rest.”	Yes	Quoted from Psalm 95:11; refers to Israel's failure to enter Canaan.
Heb 3:18	“should not enter into his rest”	Yes	Still referring to Canaan as consequence of unbelief.
Heb 4:1	“promise being left us of entering into his rest”	No	Shifts to ongoing promise — spiritual rest.
Heb 4:3	“we which have believed do enter into rest”	No	Present spiritual fulfillment in Christ.
Heb 4:3	“They shall not enter into my rest.”	Yes	Repeats Psalm 95 again — literal Canaan rest denied.
Heb 4:4	“God did rest the seventh day”	No	Refers to creation; divine rest, not Canaan.
Heb 4:5	“They shall not enter into my rest.”	Yes	Psalm 95 again; still Canaan in historical context.
Heb 4:8	“If Jesus (Joshua) had given them rest”	No	Joshua brought them to Canaan, but not the ultimate rest.
Heb 4:9	“There remaineth... a rest to the people of God.”	No	A different, enduring spiritual rest — still available.
Heb 4:10	“entered into his rest”	No	God’s own rest — spiritual participation through faith.
Heb 4:11	“Let us labour... to enter into that rest”	No	Urging believers toward spiritual rest, not literal land.

God's rest is like salvation.

- We receive it by faith alone.
- But we also enjoy it more and more as we trust and obey God each day.
- One day, we will enjoy perfect rest with God forever in Heaven.

So this rest is:

- 1. Already begun (when we believe),
- 2. Growing now (as we obey and trust),
- 3. Finished later (when we are with God forever).
